Our great appreciation to Malikah Marrus and the Center for Children, Law & Policy at the University of Houston Law Center, who generously offered their facilities for the Summit, coordinated the Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits and provided countless hours of support in organizing the Summit. Many thanks to Phyllis Qualls at IntraCare Hospital for her tireless organization of the Continuing Education Units (CEUs) provided at the Summit. Special gratitude to Gail Revis for chairing the Cradle to Prison Pipeline Campaign at Children's Defense Fund. Warm appreciation to Jose Rendon and the YMCA for their charitable donation to provide over 40 families and youth scholarships to participate in the Texas Summit. Appreciation to HEB for donating water and being a long-time champion for child advocacy issues through extemporary leadership in the business community. We would like to recognize Sister Mama Sonya for organizing the panel, "Perspectives of Youth and Parents." Her long time dedication to children's well-being is much to be admired. We would also like to thank our colleagues at the CDF National office for supporting our development of the Summit, including materials, on-line registration and much, much more. We especially recognize Natacha Blain, Lynn White, Heidi Hess, Michael Edwards, Casey Aden-Wansbury and Wyokemia Joyner.

The Cradle to Prison Pipeline Texas Summit was generously underwritten by Casey Family Programs.
